FOR

THE STATE OF LOUISIANA

AN ERISA EXEMPT EMPLOYER

Amended as of July 1, 2013

Established, 1993

Office of Group Benefits
Division of Administration
State of Louisiana

Article 1

INTRODUCTION

The Office of Group Benefits is administering this Internal Revenue Service qualified cafeteria plan, hereinafter referred to as the Flexible Benefits Plan (Flex Plan), in accordance with Louisiana Revised Statutes 42:802 B(9). This Flex Plan is effective as of July 1, 1993. This Flex Plan document is amended to comply with Internal Revenue Code regulations and is effective as of July 1, 2013.

The purpose of the Flex Plan is to allow Eligible Employees of the Employer to select among various Benefits offered by the Employer, or cash, so that the participating employees can receive those Benefits which they have determined best meet their individual needs or the needs of their family.

It is the specific intent of the Employer that this Flex Plan be a qualified “cafeteria plan” as defined in Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and that certain Benefits which an employee may select to receive under this Flex Plan qualify for exclusion from the employee’s income for federal income tax purposes.

Furthermore, this Flex Plan is intended to be interpreted in a manner consistent with: Sections 79, 105, 106, 125, 129 and 223 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; all IRS Regulations thereunder; and any applicable federal law or regulation hereinafter enacted affecting qualification of a valid Section 125 Cafeteria Plan.

The Employer establishes this Flex Plan as an “exempt governmental plan” as described in Section 3(32) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Section 2.02 “Administrative Fee” means the required participation fee set by the Administrator to cover the cost of administering the Health Care FSA and the Dependent Care FSA. This fee is separate and in addition to amounts identified for Benefits. Failure to pay the Administrative Fee will result in the denial of the privilege to participate in the respective Benefit.

Section 2.03 “Administrator” means the Office of Group Benefits, Division of Administration, State of Louisiana or other such person or entity that it appoints as its designee.

Section 2.04 “Annual Enrollment Period” means the period designated by the Administrator which precedes the commencement of each Plan Year during which Eligible Employees can elect or modify the amount contributed for Benefits.

Section 2.05 “Appeals Panel” means the panel of at least three (3) individuals appointed by the Administrator.

Section 2.06 “Applicable Law” means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the same as may be amended from time-to-time, plus all regulations promulgated with respect thereto. Section 2.07 “Benefit” means any of the following benefits available under the Flex Plan:

Section 2.09 “Change in Status” means, for purposes of this Flex Plan, and specifically excluding the Dependent Care FSA and the Health Care FSA the following events:

- (c) Termination or commencement of employment by the Participant, the Participant’s spouse or the Participant’s Dependent. In addition, if the eligibility conditions of the cafeteria plan or other employee benefit plan of the Employer of the Participant, the Participant’s spouse, or the Participant’s Dependent depend on the employment status of that individual and there is a change in that individual’s employment status with the consequence that the individual becomes (or ceases to be) eligible under the plan, then that change constitutes a change in employment status;
- (d) A reduction or increase in hours of employment by the Participant, the Participant’s spouse or the Participant’s Dependent, including a switch between part-time and full-time status, a strike or lockout, or commencement or return from an unpaid leave of absence, as it affects eligibility for coverage;
- (e) A Dependent satisfying or ceasing to satisfy the Dependent eligibility requirements for a particular benefit, for example, due to attainment of limiting age; and
- (f) A change in the place of residence, or place of work of the Participant, the Participant’s spouse or the Participant’s Dependent. Article 3

PARTICIPATION

Section 3.01 Eligibility to Participate.

- (a) An Employee is eligible to participate in this Flexible Benefits Plan if the Employee:
 - (1) is an active, full-time Employee as defined by the Employer; and
 - (2) is employed by an Employer that utilizes the State of Louisiana Flexible Benefits Plan.
- (b) An employee is eligible to participate in the HSA benefit only if he is a HSA-Eligible Individual and satisfies any additional requirement(s) of the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian.

Section 3.02 Participation Agreement. An election by an Eligible Employee to participate in this Flexible Benefits Plan is an agreement to the following:

- (a) To pay any and all applicable Administrative Fee(s) (Failure to pay all applicable Administrative Fee(s) will result in the denial of the privilege to participate in the Flexible Benefits Plan.);
- (b) To authorize his Employer to reduce his Compensation pursuant to his Salary Reduction Agreement before federal and state income taxes and Social Security taxes are calculated;
- (c) To certify that he is a HSA-Eligible Individual with regard to making HSA Contributions for any month; and,
- (d) To agree that his Employer and Administrator will incur no liability resulting from either his participation in this Flexible Benefits Plan, Dependent Care FSA, Health Care FSA, HSA, or his failure to sign and/or accurately complete an Enrollment Form.

Section 3.03 HSA Participation.

- (a) Participation. An Eligible Employee can elect to participate in the HSA benefit by enrolling in the High Deductible Health Plan; opening a HSA with the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian; and electing to pay Contributions on a pre-tax basis to his HSA, pursuant to his Salary Reduction Agreement. Such election to pay Contributions can be increased, decreased, or revoked prospectively at any time during the Plan Year, effective no later than the first day of the second month following the date that the election change was filed with his Employer.
- (b) General-Purpose Health Care FSA (GPFSA) Limitation. The HSA benefit cannot be elected with the General-Purpose Health Care FSA option.

- (c) Limited-Purpose (dental/vision) Health Care FSA (LPFSA). The HSA benefit can be elected with the LPFSA option.
- (d) Transition Rule. A Participant who has an election for the General-Purpose Health Care FSA that is in effect on the day immediately preceding the first day of a Plan Year cannot make Contributions for any of the first three calendar months of that same Plan Year, unless the balance in the Participant's General-Purpose Health Care FSA Account was $0.00 on the day immediately preceding the first day of that same Plan Year. For this purpose, a Participant's General-Purpose Health Care FSA Account balance is determined on a cash basis – that is without regard to any claims that have been incurred but have not yet been reimbursed (whether or not such claims have been submitted).

Section 3.04 Salary Reduction Contributions.

- (a) Salary Reductions per pay period. Participants in this Flex Plan must pay for the cost of elected Benefits on a pre-tax basis pursuant to the Enrollment Form(s) and Salary Reduction Agreement. For Participants paid monthly, the Salary Reduction for each pay period is an amount equal to the total of all Contributions plus all Administrative Fees expected to be paid during the Plan Year, divided by twelve (12). For Participants paid bi-weekly, the Salary Reduction for each pay period, except for a pay period associated with a third check in a given month, is an amount equal to the total of all Contributions plus all Administrative Fees expected to be paid during the Plan Year, divided by twenty-four (24). For Participants paid weekly, the Salary Reduction for each pay period is an amount equal to the total of all Contributions plus all Administrative Fees expected to be paid during the Plan Year, divided by fifty-two (52).
- (b) Employer Contributions. Salary Reductions for the purpose of this Flex Plan and the Code are considered Employer contributions.

Section 3.05 Termination of Participation. An Eligible Employee will cease to be a Participant in this Flexible Benefits Plan upon the earlier of:

- (a) the termination of the Flexible Benefits Plan;
- (b) the date the Participant ceases to be an Eligible Employee; or,
- (c) the date the Participant revokes the election to participate on account of and consistent with an event permitting an exception to the irrevocability of elections in accordance with Section 4.06.

Termination of an Employee's participation in this Flexible Benefits Plan shall cause the Participant's elections made under this Flexible Benefits Plan to be automatically revoked. Reimbursements after termination of participation will be made pursuant to applicable insurance policies and/or Plan Documents.

Section 3.06 COBRA Participation. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Plan Document, to the extent required by COBRA, a Participant and Participant's Spouse and Participant's Dependents, whose coverage terminates under the Plan because of a COBRA qualifying event, shall be given the opportunity to continue coverage under the Plan on an after-tax basis for the periods prescribed by COBRA (subject to all conditions and limitations under COBRA). With respect to the Health Care FSA Plan, such individuals will be eligible for COBRA continuation coverage only in accordance with the Health Care FSA Plan document and only if the Participant has a positive Health Care FSA Account balance at the time of a COBRA qualifying event (taking into account all claims submitted before the date of the qualifying event). Such individuals will be notified if they are eligible for COBRA continuation coverage.

Section 3.07 Closure of HSA. An Eligible Employee will cease to be a HSA-Eligible Individual upon the closure of his HSA with the Employer-specified trustee/custodian. Said closure will cause the HSA Contributions to cease.

Section 3.08 Reinstatement of Former Participants by Reason of Civil Service Appeal. When employment of a Participant is terminated and reinstated within the same Plan Year by reason of a Civil Service appeal, elections shall be reinstated retroactive to the date that employment was terminated. In the event the terminated Participant is not reinstated prior to the end of the Plan Year in which he was terminated, he shall no longer be a Participant and he shall no longer be an Eligible Employee. However, when this former Participant's employment is reinstated during a subsequent Plan Year, the reinstatement shall be a Change in Status and the former Participant will be permitted to enter the Flexible Benefits Plan upon return from his absence.

Section 3.09 Participation Following Rehire. If a Participant terminates his or her employment with his Employer for any reason, including (but not limited to) disability, retirement, layoff, or voluntary resignation, and then is rehired within thirty 30 days or less after the date of a termination of employment, then the Eligible Employee will be reinstated with the same elections that such Employee had before termination. If a former Participant is rehired more than thirty (30) days following termination of employment with the Employer and is otherwise eligible to participate in the Plan, then the Eligible Employee may make new elections as a new hire as described in Section 3.01 and Section 3.02. Notwithstanding the above, an HSA benefit election will only be reinstated if the Eligible Employee is an HSA-Eligible Individual.

Section 3.10 Participation Following Transfer. A Participant who transfers from one Employer to another Employer within the participating Flexible Benefits Plan payroll systems will continue to participate in this Flexible Benefits Plan at the same level of participation as prior to the transfer.

Section 3.11 FMLA Leaves of Absence. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Plan Document, if a Participant goes on a qualifying paid leave under the FMLA, he may elect to continue on the same basis as during active service or discontinue his coverage.

In the case when a Participant goes on a qualifying unpaid leave under the FMLA, he may elect to continue his coverage or discontinue his coverage. If he elects to continue, a Participant may pay his Salary Reduction in one of the following ways:

- (a) by pre-paying with pre-tax dollars all or a portion of the Salary Reduction(s) for the expected duration of the leave pursuant to a prior to commencement of FMLA leave agreement with his Employer. To pre-pay the Salary Reduction(s) the Participant must make a special election to that effect prior to the date that such Compensation would normally be made available (Pre-tax dollars may not be used to fund coverage during the next Plan Year.);

- (b) by paying with pre-tax dollars upon his return to work on a payroll reduction schedule pursuant to a prior to commencement of FMLA leave agreement with his Employer;
or
- (c) by paying with after-tax dollars in the form of monthly payments to the Employer by the due date established by the Employer.

If a Participant's coverage ceases while on FMLA leave, the Participant will be permitted to re-enter this Flexible Benefits Plan upon return from such leave on the same basis as when the Participant was participating in this Flexible Benefits Plan prior to leave, or otherwise required by FMLA.

Section 3.12 Non-FMLA Leaves of Absence. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Plan Document, if a Participant goes on unpaid leave that does not affect eligibility, he may elect to continue or discontinue his coverage.

If the Participant elects to continue his coverage, he may pay his Salary Reduction(s) in one of the following ways:

- (a) by pre-paying with pre-tax dollars all or a portion of the Salary Reduction(s) for the expected duration of the leave pursuant to a prior to commencement of unpaid leave agreement with his Employer. To pre-pay the Salary Reduction(s) the Participant must make a special election to that effect prior to the date that such Compensation would normally be made available (Pre-tax dollars may not be used to fund coverage during the next Plan Year);
- (b) by paying with pre-tax dollars upon his return to work on a payroll reduction schedule pursuant to a prior to commencement of unpaid leave agreement with his Employer;
or
- (c) by paying with after-tax dollars in the form of monthly payments to the Employer by the due date established by the Employer.

If a Participant goes on an unpaid leave that affects eligibility, the election change rules in Section 4.06 will apply.

Article 4

BENEFITS AND ELECTIONS

Section 4.01 Procedure. Except as otherwise provided herein, a Participant may elect Qualified Benefits in this Flex Plan by the execution of a signed Enrollment Form, and by providing such data as may be reasonably required by the Administrator in accordance with Section 4.03 and Section 4.04.

Section 4.02 Consent to Flex Plan. By the execution of an Enrollment Form each Participant who elects Qualified Benefits shall be conclusively deemed, for all purposes, to have consented to the provisions of this Flex Plan and amendments thereto.

Section 4.03 Election Effective Date.

- (a) Elections During Enrollment Period. New Eligible Employees who want to enroll in the Flexible Benefits Plan must submit the Enrollment Form and elect to pay any applicable Administrative Fee within the Enrollment Period. The applicant becomes a Participant effective for the pay period in which the Enrollment Form is received by the Employer.
- (b) Elections During Annual Enrollment Period. During each Annual Enrollment Period with respect to a Plan Year, the Administrator shall make available an Enrollment Form upon request. Eligible Employees who want to enroll in the Flexible Benefits Plan must submit the Enrollment Form and elect to pay any applicable Administrative Fee on or before the last day of the Annual Enrollment Period. If an Eligible Employee elects to participate during an Annual Enrollment Period, he becomes a Participant on the first day of the applicable Plan Year.
- (c) Eligible Employee Who Fails to File an Enrollment Form. If an Eligible Employee fails to file (or fails to timely file) an Enrollment Form with respect to a Plan Year with his Employer during the Enrollment Period or the Annual Enrollment Period, he will not be considered a Participant in this Flexible Benefits Plan with respect to that Plan Year, and he may not elect to participate in this Flexible Benefits Plan until the next Annual Enrollment Period unless:
 - (1) he experiences a Change in Status and makes an election change on account of and consistent with the Change in Status pursuant to Section 4.06; or
 - (2) the Flexible Benefits Plan adds a new Benefit Package Option, or significantly improves coverage under an existing Benefit Package Option during a Period of Coverage, and the Eligible Employee makes an election on a prospective basis for coverage under the new or improved Benefit Package Option.

When an Eligible Employee is enrolled for coverage in an OGB Plan and fails to file an Enrollment Form for this Flex Plan, then he will pay his share of the OGB Plan premium with after-tax dollars outside of the Flex Plan until he acts to become a Participant. Until the Eligible Employee becomes a Participant, the Employer's portion of the OGB Plan premium will also be paid outside of the Flex Plan.

Section 4.04 HSA Elections.

- a) Maximum Limits. The annual Contribution for a Participant's HSA is equal to the annual benefit amount elected by the Participant. In no event shall the amount elected exceed the statutory maximum amount for HSA Contributions for the calendar year in which the Contribution is made. The maximum annual Contribution shall be reduced by any matching or other Employer Contribution made on the Participant's behalf. The HSA Contribution will start after the opening of a HSA with the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian. Upon the closure of a HSA with the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian, the HSA Contribution will cease in accordance with Section 3.07.
- b) Matching Contributions. The Employer will contribute a defined dollar amount to the HSA-Eligible Individual's HSA when a Participant establishes a HSA with the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian. The Employer's defined contribution shall be communicated to Eligible Employees through the Enrollment Form/Salary Reduction Agreement or otherwise.
- c) Catch-up Contributions. An additional catch-up Contribution of $1,000 may be made per Plan Year for Participants who are age 55 or older.

Section 4.05 Irrevocability of Elections; Not Applicable for HSA. Except as provided in Section 4.06, a Participant's election to participate in this Flexible Benefits Plan is irrevocable for the duration of the Participant's Period of Coverage; therefore the Participant may not change:

- (a) his participation in the Flexible Benefits Plan;
- (b) his elected annual benefit amount(s); or
- (c) his Salary Reduction amount(s).

Section 4.06 Events Permitting Exception to the Irrevocability of Elections. The exceptions to the irrevocability of elections are as follows:

- (a) HIPAA Special Enrollment Rights. If a Participant has a right to enroll in an employer's group health plan or to add coverage for a family member under HIPAA, the Participant can revoke an existing election and make a new election under the Flex Plan that conforms to the special enrollment right. Coverage with respect to a birth, adoption, marriage, or placement for adoption is effective retroactively to the date of the birth, adoption, marriage, or placement for adoption.
- (b) Changes in Status. Participants may revoke an election and make a new election with respect to accident and health coverage and group-term life insurance, if:
 - (1) a valid Change in Status occurs as defined in Section 2.09;
 - (2) the Participant provides documentation of the Qualifying Event for the valid Change in Status; and

- (3) both the revocation and the election change are “consistent” with the Change in Status. An election change is “consistent” if the Change in Status event affects eligibility for coverage and the change in election corresponds with the effect on eligibility. The Administrator (in his sole discretion and on a uniform and consistent basis) shall determine based upon prevailing IRS guidance whether a requested change is consistent with and attributable to a Change in Status. Election changes must be on a prospective basis. Elections may further be restricted by the terms of specific insurance policies; agreements between the Employer and the insurance carriers providing Benefits under the Flex Plan; the Dependent Care FSA Plan Document; the Health Care FSA Plan Document; and/or the agreement between the HSA Participant and the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian.
- (c) Judgment, Decree or Order. If a judgment, decree, or order resulting from a divorce, legal separation, annulment, or change in legal custody (including NMSN) requires accident or health coverage for a Participant's Dependent (including a foster child who is a Dependent of the Participant), a Participant may:
- (1) change his election to provide coverage for the Dependent (provided that the Notice requires the Participant to provide coverage); or
 - (2) change his election to revoke coverage for the Dependent if the Notice requires that another individual (including the Participant's spouse or former spouse) provide coverage under the individual's plan and such coverage is actually provided.
- (d) Entitlement to Medicare or Medicaid. If a Participant or his spouse or Dependent who is enrolled in a health or accident plan under the Flex Plan becomes entitled to Medicare or Medicaid (other than coverage consisting solely of benefits under Section 1928 of the Social Security Act providing for pediatric vaccines), the Participant may prospectively cancel or reduce his health coverage. Further, if a Participant or his spouse or Dependent who has been entitled to Medicare or Medicaid loses eligibility for such coverage, the Participant may prospectively elect to commence or increase his health coverage.
- (e) Cost or Coverage Changes. The Administrator, in its sole discretion and on a uniform and consistent basis, will determine whether an increase or decrease in coverage cost is significant or insignificant based upon all surrounding facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, the dollar amount or percentage of the cost change. Furthermore, the Administrator, in its sole discretion and on a uniform and consistent basis, will determine whether an addition of coverage, an improvement in a Benefit Package Option, or a curtailment in coverage is “significant” or “insignificant” in accordance with prevailing IRS guidance.
- (1) Insignificant Cost Increases. If the cost of a Benefit Package Option increases (or decreases) insignificantly during a Period of Coverage, the Flex Plan will automatically make a prospective increase (or decrease) in affected Participants' elected Contributions for the plan.

- (2) Significant Cost Increases. If the cost of a Benefit Package Option significantly increases during a Period of Coverage, Participants may either make a corresponding prospective increase in their payments, or revoke their elections and, in lieu thereof, receive on a prospective basis coverage under another Benefit Package Option providing similar coverage. If there is no Benefit Package Option that provides similar coverage, the Participant may revoke his election and cease participation in a Benefit Package Option.
- (3) Significant Addition or Improvement of Coverage. If a new Benefit Package Option or other coverage option, or if coverage under an existing Benefit Package Option or other coverage option is significantly improved during a Period of Coverage, Eligible Employees (whether or not they have previously made an election under the Flexible Benefits Plan) may revoke their election, and in lieu thereof, make a new election on a prospective basis for coverage under the new or improved Benefit Package Option. This exception to the irrevocability of elections does not apply to an election change with respect to the Health Care FSA.
- (4) Significant Curtailment of Coverage. If the coverage under a Benefit Package Option is significantly curtailed or ceases during a Period of Coverage, Participants may revoke their elections under the plan. In that case, each affected Participant may make a new election on a prospective basis for coverage under another Benefit Package Option providing similar coverage. If there is no Benefit Package Option that provides similar coverage, the Participant may revoke his election and cease participation in his Benefit Package Option.
- (5) Change in Coverage of Spouse or Dependent Under Other Employer's Plan. A Participant may make a prospective election change that is on account of and corresponds with a change made under the plan of the spouse's, former spouse's, or Dependent's employer if:
 - (i) The other cafeteria plan or qualified benefits plan allows its participants to make an IRS-permitted election change; or
 - (ii) The Flex Plan requires Participants to make an election for a Period of Coverage that is different from the period of coverage under the other cafeteria plan.
- (f) FMLA Leave. A Participant may change an election under the Flex Plan upon FMLA Leave in accordance with Section 3.11.
- (g) Non-FMLA Leave. A Participant may change an election under the Flex Plan upon Non-FMLA Leave in accordance with Section 3.12.

Section 4.07 Automatic Change in Election. Any event that results in a beneficiary becoming ineligible for health coverage will result in an automatic corresponding change of election. A Participant's election is deemed to have changed automatically as of the date of the event that caused the loss of eligibility.

Section 4.08 Election Modifications Required by Administrator. The Administrator may, at any time, require any Participant or class of Participants to amend the amount of their Salary Reduction for a Plan Year if the Administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable in order to:

- (a) satisfy any of the Code's nondiscrimination requirements applicable to this Flexible Benefits Plan;
- (b) prevent any Employee or class of Employees from having to recognize more income for federal income tax purposes from the receipt of Benefits hereunder than would otherwise be recognized; or
- (c) maintain the qualified status of Benefits received under this Flexible Benefits Plan.

In the event Contributions need to be reduced for a class of Participants, the Administrator will reduce the Salary Reduction amounts for each affected Participant, beginning with the Participant in the class who had elected the highest Salary Reduction amount, continuing with the Participant in the class who had elected the next highest Salary Reduction amount, and so forth, until the defect is corrected.

Section 4.09 Change in Applicable Law. In the event that changes in Applicable Law result in a Qualified Benefit offered under the Flex Plan becoming a non-qualified benefit, any Participant electing such Benefit may, if permissible under Applicable Law, be allowed to re-elect another Qualified Benefit in lieu of the non-qualified benefit. Such election may be made at times not provided for under the Flex Plan but in accordance with the rules adopted by the Administrator.

OPTIONAL BENEFITS

Section 5.01 Benefits. Participants shall be permitted to choose among available Benefits. The terms and conditions of each covered Benefit are set forth in the appropriate insurance policies and Plan Documents providing the selected Benefits. Cash or Benefits treated as cash are intended to be the only taxable Flex Plan Benefits.

Section 5.02 Selection of Benefits. As provided in Section 4.03, each Eligible Employee must first elect his desired Benefits. By the election of such Benefits, the Eligible Employee has elected to receive Compensation as Cash and Benefits pursuant to his Enrollment Form.

Section 5.03 Flexible Spending Arrangements. The Employer has, by separate Plan Document(s), established a Dependent Care FSA and a Health Care FSA.

Section 5.04 HSA. As established under Code Section 223, an HSA is an individual trust or custodial account, separately established and maintained by the Participant with a HSA trustee/custodian. The HSA benefit under this Flex Plan consists solely of the ability to make Contributions on a pre-tax Salary Reduction basis to the Participant's HSA that is established and maintained outside this Flex Plan by the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian. The Employer and the Office of Group Benefits will forward Contributions to the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian pursuant to the Participant's HSA payroll deduction form. This funding feature constitutes the entirety of the HSA benefit offered under this Flex Plan. Distributions from a Participant's HSA and all other matters related to the Participant's HSA are outside this Flex Plan and are to be handled by the Participant and the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian in accordance with the contract between the Participant and the HSA trustee/custodian. The Flex Plan and its service providers, other than the Employer-specified HSA trustee/custodian, are not considered custodians or trustees and shall not be held responsible for any use of the Participants' funds. The Employer and Office of Group Benefits have no authority over the funds deposited in a HSA.

APPEALS PROCEDURES

Section 6.01 Review of Administrative Decisions. Any Participant may request a review of any administrative decision or action of the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of this Flexible Benefits Plan.

Section 6.02 Appeals. The purpose of the review procedure as set forth herein is to provide a procedure by which a denial under this Flex Plan may receive a full and fair review by the Appeals Panel. To obtain this review, one shall request a review by filing a written application for review by the Appeals Panel with the Administrator within sixty 60 days after receipt by the applicant of written notice of the denial. In connection with this request for review, the applicant may review pertinent Plan Documents and submit issues and/or comments in writing to the Administrator.

Section 6.03 Decision on Review. Decisions on review shall be made in the following manner:

- (a) The decision on review shall be made by the Appeals Panel. The Appeals Panel shall make its decision promptly, and not later than sixty (60) days after the Appeals Panel receives the request for review, unless special circumstances require an extension of time for processing. In such case, a decision shall be rendered as soon as possible, but not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt of the request for review. If such an extension of time for review is required, written notice of the extension shall be furnished to the Participant prior to the commencement of the extension.
- (b) The decision on review shall be in writing and shall set forth the following in the event of a denial:
 - (1) Information to identify the Participant's request;
 - (2) Specific reason(s) for the decision; and,
 - (3) Specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which the denial is based.

In the event that the decision on review is not furnished within the time period set forth in this Section 6.03, the claim shall be deemed denied on review.

Section 7.03 Reliance on Participant, Tables, etc. The Administrator may rely upon the direction, information or election of a Participant as being proper under the Flexible Benefits Plan and shall not be responsible for any act or failure to act because of a direction or lack of direction by a Participant. The Administrator will also be entitled, to the extent permitted by law, to rely conclusively on all tables, valuations, certificates, opinions, and reports that are furnished by accountants, attorneys, or other experts employed or engaged by the Administrator.

Section 7.04 Fiduciary Liability. To the extent permitted by law, the Administrator shall incur no liability for any acts or failure to act except for his own willful misconduct or willful breach of this Flexible Benefits Plan.

Section 7.05 Effect of Mistake. In the event of a mistake as to the eligibility or participation of an Employee, the allocations made to the Account of any Participant, or the amount of benefits paid or to be paid to a Participant or other person, the Administrator shall, to the extent it deems possible and permissible under Code §125 or the regulations issued thereunder, cause to be allocated or cause to be withheld or accelerated, or otherwise made adjustment of, such amounts as it will in its judgment accord to such Participant or other person the credits to the Account or distributions to which he is properly entitled under this Flexible Benefits Plan. Such action by the Administrator may include withholding of any amounts due this Flexible Benefits Plan or the Employer from Compensation paid by the Employer.

Neither the Administrator nor the Employer makes any commitment or guarantee that any amounts paid to or for the benefit of a Participant under this Flexible Benefits Plan will be excludable from the Participant's gross income for federal, state, or local income tax purposes. It shall be the obligation of each Participant to determine whether each payment under this Flexible Benefits Plan is excludable from the Participant's gross income for federal, state and local income tax purposes, and to notify the Administrator if the Participant has any reason to believe that such payment is not so excludable.

Section 8.07 Indemnification of Employer. Section 8.08 Non-Assignability of Rights. The right of any Participant to receive any reimbursement under this Flexible Benefits Plan shall not be alienable by the Participant by assignment or any other method and shall not be subject to claims by the Participant's creditors by any process whatsoever. Any attempt to cause such right to be so subjected will not be recognized, except to such extent as may be required by law.

Section 8.09 Limitation of Rights.
