

OGB to hold Medicare Advantage Enrollment meetings October 3 – 7; Annual Enrollment meetings planned for October 10 – November 4

In preparation for the 2012 plan year, which will coincide with the calendar year, the Office of Group Benefits is holding meetings for two separate enrollment periods, OGB Annual Enrollment and OGB Medicare Advantage Enrollment. Enclosed is a list of these meetings, which will take place across the state. Changes in health plans are effective January 1, 2012. See page 2 for more information on the difference between OGB Annual Enrollment and OGB Medicare Advantage Enrollment.

Enrollment in OGB Medicare Advantage health plans is open to any retired OGB plan member (and his or her covered spouse, if applicable) who has Medicare Part A and Part B coverage. OGB has five Medicare Advantage health plans for 2012:

- An HMO plan (offered by Humana);
- Two HMO-POS plans (offered by Peoples Health and Vantage Health Plan); and
- Two PPO plans (offered by Humana and UnitedHealthcare).

OGB also has four standard health plans available to retirees for 2012:

- A PPO plan (administered by OGB);
- An HMO plan (plan administrator to be announced);
- A Regional HMO plan (fully insured by Vantage Health Plan); and
- A Medical Home HMO plan (fully insured by Vantage Health Plan).

It's important to consider your options carefully. Each plan member has a unique health history and different medical needs. An OGB plan that's right for you may be wrong for your neighbor, your parent or your friend, and benefits for OGB Medicare Advantage plans vary. Some include extra benefits in addition to benefits OGB requires for all plans. And some are only available in certain areas.

We encourage you to attend an OGB Annual Enrollment meeting and, if you are eligible, an OGB Medicare Advantage Enrollment meeting in your area to learn more. (Companies that offer OGB Medicare Advantage plans may also hold additional meetings to provide more details about those plans.)

OGB Annual Enrollment and OGB Medicare Advantage Enrollment — *what's the difference?

OGB Annual Enrollment is the time period each year when all OGB plan members can transfer to an OGB standard health plan (the PPO, HMO, Regional HMO, Medical Home HMO and CDHP-HSA health plans). The CDHP-HSA health plan is for eligible active employees only. For the 2012 plan year, Annual Enrollment begins October 3 and ends November 4.

OGB Medicare Advantage Enrollment is when retirees with both Medicare Part A and Part B can transfer to an OGB Medicare Advantage health plan. For the 2012 plan year, Medicare Advantage Enrollment begins October 1 and ends December 2.

Both enrollment periods now take place once a year in the fall, with an effective date of coverage on January 1. Although the two enrollment periods overlap, the beginning and ending dates vary.

October 1 - December 2, 2011

Retirees with Medicare Part A and Part B can transfer to an OGB Medicare Advantage plan.

October 3 - November 4, 2011

All plan members can transfer to an OGB standard plan. Retirees with Medicare Part A and Part B can transfer to an OGB Medicare Advantage plan or an OGB standard plan.

If you wish to stay with your current OGB health plan, no action is required.
